-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Art Unit: 1743

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on October 24, 2006 has been entered.

2. Claims 1-2, 4-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The scope of the claims is unclear because the preamble recites "consisting of", but in other portions of the claims, open language is used (e.g., "comprises" and "includes" in claims 5-6, and possibly "has" in claims 1 and 4). See, e.g., MPEP 2111.03. It is therefore unclear how limited the claim is if at least some elements can be made of any number of additional sub-elements. Can the elements not specifically further limited by "has," comprising" or "includes" include any number of sub-elements? Claim 6 is unclear in that it should depend from claim 5 for proper antecedence for "said piston plunger."

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Yamamoto (2002/0114740).

Yamamoto teaches dispenser means 1, 3; connection means 1a, actuator means 7, 9, 11, 13; and chamber means 5. The actuator includes valve 7. See, e.g., figure 2.

5. Claims 5-6 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. Claims 1-2 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

7. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The prior art fails to teach or suggest a device consisting of the elements claimed. The indication of allowability assumes that the amendment to overcome the rejection will be based upon closed claim language as argued by applicant.

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 4 has been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

9. Applicant's arguments, filed October 24, 2006, with respect to the rejection previously of record have been fully considered and are persuasive.
